Directives for the Executive Team

The Chairman shall be elected from the membership of the NZATS only and not from any Committee or sub committee of the NZATS, nor as a Co-opted member.

All other offices of the NZATS shall be elected either from the membership of the NZATS, its committees or as Co-opted positions

Office Bearers will hold office for a term of 3 years, but will be eligible for re-election at the end of this term.

The NZATS will elect its officers as their term falls due, by simple majority. The NZSA and ANZCA will elect their NZATS representatives as per the regulations of their Professional bodies.

Voting at Executive Meetings shall normally be by a vote of hands, though any member of the NZATS executive team may request a written ballot on any issue. In the event of a tied vote the Chairman shall have a casting vote. Normally this vote shall be to remain with the status quo except in exceptional circumstances in which case the vote shall be a vote of guidance in the best interests of the NZATS.

The Chairman may take any action required to conserve the interests of the NZATS provided that the NZATS Executive are so notified forthwith

All persons appointed to the NZATS Executive shall hold a current annual practicing certificate relevant to their qualification and if an Anaesthetic Technician full registration with the NZATS.

All members of the NZATS Executive are to have permanent residence in New Zealand

All members of the NZATS executive team have a duty to complete all requirements asked of them by the NZATS within suitable time frames and following the guidelines laid down in these regulations. Failure to do this may constitute removal from the NZATS executive team.

The NZATS Executive may remove any executive team member for bankruptcy, neglect of duties or professional misconduct

The NZATS may seek professional secretarial or other assistance as required.

The election of any NZSA and ANZCA members shall be done in compliance with the affiliated bodies' regulations. The NZATS Executive reserves the right to question any position that it deems has been elected not according to the set procedures of the affiliated body.

The NZATS Executive team shall have the final decision as to the make up of the NZATS Executive team and the number of persons serving on it including the particular affiliated bodies.

The Affiliated body shall resolve any matters referred back to it via its member prior to voting, in time for voting at the next NZATS meeting. Failure to do this will see the vote of the concerned affiliated body, on the matter under vote, as disallowed.

Items for the Agenda of the quarterly meeting shall be received by the Secretary no later than 14 days before the meeting and a final agenda shall be distributed to the Executive team members of the NZATS not less than 7 days before the Quarterly meeting is held.

The Annual General meeting will normally be held at the annual conference of NZATS held in conjunction with the NZAEC meeting

From time to time the NZATS may request other persons to attend the quarterly Executive meetings. If such an occasion occurs the persons shall only be present for the time allocated by the NZATS Executive.

Vacancies of NZATS Offices

Election of extra positions to the NZATS Executive shall be at the NZATS Executive teams' discretion as required and the NZATS executive team shall determine conditions of the Position at the time.

If an NZATS executive team member is absent for more than 3 meetings in any one year the NZATS has the right to appoint another person to the position and the current affiliated shall be required to step down.

In the event of a vacancy the Executive shall ask for applications for the position either at the AGM, via the Website, by correspondence with the members or by co-opting an appropriate member.

Co-option of Members

The NZATS executive team may Co-opt persons for specified positions and terms of office not exceeding 3 years.

The co-option of members is regulated by the NZATS executive team itself not the affiliated bodies represented on the NZATS. However the NZATS executive team is required to have regard to the type of skills needed to function in the co-opted role effectively and to co-opt appropriate persons to the positions.

Co-opted persons are entitled to exercise the powers and rights of Members of the NZATS, including the right to vote on matters relating to their position within the NZATS, and are eligible for election to the NZATS Executive Team.

The NZATS reserves the right to act as needed, in respect of co-opting persons, to achieve its objectives.

Directives for appointment of Committees to the NZATS

The NZATS executive team may appoint Committees to undertake functions of the NZATS in relation to its objectives and may delegate to the committees such powers and responsibilities as the NZATS executive deems appropriate.

Any delegations may be revoked and no such delegation shall prevent the exercise of any power or the performance of any function by the NZATS

The number and duties of members of these committees will be determined by the NZATS executive and delegated to the committee as outlined in a Term of Reference document for each committee. The terms of reference document shall contain the following information

- Purpose of committee
- Accountability
