Success is not the work of one, but the work of many.

Permanent, full-time

80 hours per fortnight (1.0FTE)

We have an opportunity for two qualified Anaesthetic Technicians to join our team at the Hawke's Bay Hospital. In case you haven't heard the news already, work is underway on a massive surgical expansion. You can read more on our website and updates will be posted as things progress. Now is the time to join us and progress your career within our expanding service!

The Anaesthetic Technician team at Hawke's Bay Hospital cover operating theatres, ICU, ED, and flight transfers and also provide support to Radiology and CCU. You'll find yourself well supported by the Anaesthetic, ICU and ED Department and the Perioperative Management teams. You'll not only join the Anaesthetic Technicians but also our wider award winning Perioperative Department including nurses, sterile services and administration. The Department includes seven theatres, one endoscopy suite, fifteen bed PACU and a Day Surgery Unit. We cover all secondary public hospital specialties and perform on average 10,000 procedures per annum through Perioperative Services.

It should be no surprise that registration with The Medical Sciences Council is essential, and registration with the New Zealand Anaesthetic Technician Society would be preferred.

We encourage a workforce that's innovative, eager to learn and enhance their skills and is passionate about caring for our community. As part of our team we'll support, encourage and help you to develop your career with us. There'll be an opportunity for you to enhance your knowledge in education through courses and in-house training. You might even be called upon to share your knowledge through the training of our students and other members of the team.

For those who aren't already living in Hawke's Bay and making the most of what's on offer, you should know it boasts an enviable lifestyle with great homes, superb schools, a burgeoning economy, and no traffic headaches. Whether you like living by the sea, next to the river, nestled in the hills, in a village community, or an art deco city, Hawke's Bay has it all
